

Hidden World

(Halicephalobus Mephisto)

(Lyrics)

[Verse]

There's a hidden world beneath your feet
In the hairline cracks of the gold mine
Three and a half hours down, below the crust
Patterns realign
Preserved like an insect in amber
Trapped in crystalline
Made to a different blueprint
Built to a new design

Always here but never known me
Invisible to the naked eye
I metabolise so slowly
I live forever, I need never die
The Universe winding around me
As I move deathly slow
Caught in the dance of a lifetime
You are too young to know

[Chorus]

Open the door
To the last unexplored
Supernatural kingdom
Far from the sun
So far from what we imagine
All the impossible things we have done
...A strange phenomenon

[Verse]

There's a hidden world beneath your feet
Always here but never known me
There's a hidden world beneath your feet
Always here but never known me
Moving deathly slow

You are too young to know

[Chorus]

Open the door
To the last unexplored
Supernatural kingdom
Far from the sun
So far from what we imagine
All the impossible things we have done
...A strange phenomenon

[Outro]

There's a hidden world beneath your feet
